

Jambal - Press Kit 2023

Jambal is a young jazz band that's coming up fast with a freshly released EP that gets to the point. The quartet let their melodic sketches, compositional snippets and outstanding chord grids collide freely. On stage, the musicians exude a rare freshness and insouciance and offer a sophisticated and embodied performance that transports the audience into a musical universe that borrows from both UK jazz and ethno jazz. Rid of their influences, they have been able to evolve their sound and find the right tempo.

- Bob Seyler (Neimënster)

Jambal is a jazz collective on the up and up. Having been featured in webzines Clash Magazine and The Garnette Report and receiving spins on JazzFM with John Osborne and RTL's station RTL Play, the quartet has previously taken to the stage to open for notable band Portico Quartet at Luxembourg's cultural centre Neimënster. Additionally, they have showcased their talent at a number of music festivals, from Last Summer Dance to Messtival and Echterlive Festival.

Together with rapper/songwriter and good friend Matteo Griz Wolff aka Culture The Kid they regularly perform on stage together and capture their audience with a catchy acoustic hip-hop set.
