

LINQ

Have you ever yearned for the freshness of hip hop delivered with a punk rock energy while simultaneously elevated to the highest standard of musical virtuosity and freedom by modern-day jazz?

Well, no need to look further than Mateus Wojda's project, LINQ, which links all of his influences in a true cross-over and boundary pushing fashion. Albeit a very intimate project initiated by Wojda, LINQ is powered by the expertise and technical grandeur of John Wolter (drums), Pit Dahm (keys), Pierre Cocq-Amann (sax) and Gilles Grethen(guitar).
